

I wish to express my concern over the NAB petition. XM satellite radio is a real asset to me as I can get information anywhere, even where NAB stations do not have a signal. If the people in NAB can't compete with satellite radio, that is too bad, the free market should be allowed to thrive. This is the American Way. To restrict success would be similar to communism. Thank You,
John Callison